

BLACK RESCUE SERIES

The 2 in 1 Film with shatter proof feature.

Introducing - NANO-CERAMIC TECHNOLOGY

RhinePro Black Rescue Series is a safety film with Nano Ceramic Coated.

Nano-Ceramic is different from the traditional film made by metal or dyeing process. Its Indium Tin Oxide coating layer strongly absorbs infrared and ultraviolet rays. Compared with a metalized film, it solves the oxidation problem.

THE NANO-CERAMIC TECHNOLOGY

Ceramic window tint can be described as non-metallic uses a double layer of nano-ceramic technology to prevent sun's heat, saving the car's interior by wading off ultraviolet radiation to prevent inside car temperature and bring comfort without affecting visibility.

SAFETY AND SECURITY

RhinePro Black Rescue Series safety film with Nano-Ceramic coated, have so far superior optical clarity. These films can be applied to toughened, annealed or laminated glass, for security applications, where a delay of forced entry is desired. The performance of these films is affected by adhesive bong strength, thickness of the polyester, quality of application, and window structure/frame.

PERSONAL SAFETY

When normal window glass is broken, it breaks into sharp shards that are dangerous to anyone in the vicinity. Black Rescue Series window films have proven their worth in protecting people and property during seismic activity, by helping retain window glass in its frame, thus prevent injury by falling glass.
